SUSQUEHANNA STAGE

Susquehanna Stage began ten years ago, as a small but committed group of creative people gathered to discuss the possibility of a new community theatre group in Lancaster County. Believing that one must “bloom where they are planted,” we looked no further than our little river town of Marietta, PA and we worked to secure a lease with the Marietta Community House for the large brick building on the property. With many more years on the horizon, we have outgrown our current space and have moved to historic downtown Marietta, PA.

The new Marietta Center for the Arts.

Susquehanna Stage continues to create a unique theater experience like no other, but has found a new home in the beautiful stone church on West Market Street. The church was built in 1853 and has been beautifully maintained with upgrades completed to house a home for the arts in Marietta. As a non-profit community organization, our mission is to celebrate, through theatrical performances, the common humanity binding us all together. We seek to create extraordinary theatre experiences that educate, challenge, inspire and serve the community and to be a community gathering place for active exchange about culture and the power of creativity.

MARIETTA THEATRE

CINEMA.

On March 3, 2016, The Susquehanna Stage Company took a huge step toward the future by preserving both our artistic Marietta roots and expanding our mission, vision, and goals by purchasing the Historic Marietta Theatre. This Marietta landmark has been owned by the Marietta Restoration Associates since 2005. Susquehanna Stage is joining forces with the Lancaster County Housing and Redevelopment Authority to develop plans to preserve, restore, and renovate this beloved building as the working movie theatre & performance venue.

The Marietta Theatre was constructed in 1913 by an Italian immigrant named Samuel A. Acri. Acri, one of the first professional exhibitors on the East Coast, came to Marietta circa 1910, and originally showed movies in a rented room in Central Hall (now the Marietta Borough Hall). The Marietta Theatre (then known as Acri's Theatre) opened in the Spring of 1914 as a motion picture theater that could also accommodate stage productions. The Marietta Theatre is on the National Register of Historic Places. At the time of its closing in 1997, it was the oldest operating motion picture theater in Pennsylvania, and one of the oldest in the nation.

Our goal is to develop the Marietta Theatre into a multi-use venue by offering a consistent movie schedule, live stage performances, and renting the space for concerts, recitals and lectures. This is an exciting time in our history as a community theatre. It is our dream that re-opening the Marietta Theatre will help revitalize and energize our community, thereby encouraging other businesses and town leaders to bring commerce, visitors and new residents to savor the food, views, and culture of historic Marietta, Pennsylvania.

HISTORIC PRESERVATION

BREATHING NEW LIFE INTO A COMMUNITY TREASURE

It is our mission to restore the Marietta Theatre to the thriving and energetic venue that it was when it opened in 1914.

We are keeping the classic style of the front facade of the building and adding some touches that will help us to promote the theatre through digital sign-age and architectural lighting. We are developing plans for a front courtyard and gathering space so that patrons can gather outside comfortably. Moving inside, the lobby will be renovated to a classic feel with a new and upgraded snack bar so that small events and gatherings can take place in "The Lobby."

In the theatre space, the goal is to preserve the styling of the walls and seating area of a mid-nineteenth century theatre, but allow for hidden modern technology that will be overhead and behind the proscenium. Modern video projection will allow us to show classic movies on the big screen clearer and more vivid than before. The stage house will be fully renovated to serve as a modern and safe performance area. Our goal is to provide the best stage space in the area for performers, technicians, and designers.

This restoration and renovation is important to the town of Marietta and to Central PA because it will bring a great historic community venue back to life and help to create new and long lasting memories in those that become involved and attend just as "Acric's Theatre" once did.

GIVING OUR BEST TO THE COMMUNITY

ALONE WE CAN DO SO LITTLE; TOGETHER WE CAN DO SO MUCH

It is part of the mission of the Marietta Center for the Arts - Home of Susquehanna Stage & Historic Marietta Theatre, to give back to our community not only through performance theatre, but also to partner with some amazing organizations!

You may have seen us cleaning up the Susquehanna river trail, holding blood drives with the Central PA Blood Bank, holding benefit performances, or donating a percentage of show proceeds to other non-profit organizations that provided invaluable assistance to members of the community.

With each show, we try to think of different ways that we, as a theatre, can have an impact on the lives of others. Whether it be bringing joy to young kids and families while painting faces for Marietta Day, a benefit at your local church to commemorate Veteran's Day, or collecting donations for food banks, disaster relief, and other organizations, we want to make a difference!

The Marietta Center for the Arts seeks to grow our community outreach efforts and maintain a strong presence in the Marietta and other surrounding Lancaster County communities. Come and join us in giving back!

COMMUNITY OUTREACH:

giving back and
paying it forward

We owe our successes to the community. They have generously supported Susquehanna Stage through the years with their patronage, advertisements, sponsorships, and by providing a very talented pool of actors who routinely audition. The least we can do as a thank you is by giving back and helping however we can. We are truly a community theater."

LEARN CREATE PERFORM

When you imagine an evening at the theatre, you probably picture an entertaining night out spent relaxing and watching a story unfold, taking you away from reality for a few hours. What you may not realize is that theatre is more than entertainment. Theatre is a unique, immersive learning experience for audiences of any age.

THE POWER OF KIDS AND CREATIVITY

ENGAGING DIVERSE AGES, CULTURES AND ECONOMIC BACKGROUNDS THROUGH EDUCATIONAL, INTER-CULTURAL OUTREACH PROGRAMS

CREATIVITY. Performing arts teach children how to think creatively through imagination. Creative thinking skills are critical in today's world, where the ability to create solutions to problems is a necessary and valued asset.

CULTURE. Through theatre, actors and audiences are immersed in stories about characters from every background imaginable. Live shows teach children how to appreciate people of all kinds and how to respect other points of view.

COMMUNICATION. Theatre exposes young people to new vocabulary and ways of communicating. Through the arts of dance, acting, and music, children learn how to communicate and express themselves in a variety of unique ways.

MORALS. Plays and musicals illustrate many different lessons. Theatre is a safe way to expose kids to difficult situations and show them firsthand how to handle these situations. Every story has a moral.

PATIENCE. Bringing your child to a theatre for the first time may be a challenging experience, but they will become engaged in the experience! They will learn how to sit quietly, respect others, and pay attention.

IMAGINATION. Children need imagination to grow, create, think, and play. Theatre is the single most valuable place where kids can explore the endless possibilities of their imaginations and what they can do.

Children and the Future

KIDS' EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

The Marietta Center for the Arts will continue to host Susquehanna Stage's summer workshop classes in addition to bringing a new focus on year round educational opportunities for kids, teens & adults including, acting, dance, movement, and art classes. These classes & workshops give students the freedom to express themselves in an emotionally and physically safe environment. We emphasize the process of creating theatre and encourage students to share what they have learned with family and friends. Students will focus not only on material developed for the stage, but also from the worlds of music, dance, literature, and history.

Our goal is not only to nurture an appreciation for live theatre, but also to help students develop on a personal level by focusing on communication, teamwork, self-discipline, positive self-image, responsibility and respect, awareness of the senses, use of imagination and creativity, as well as, the exploration and control of emotions.

Ten years ago, a small, but committed group of creative people gathered to discuss the possibility of a new Community Theatre group in Lancaster County. Believing that one must “bloom where they are planted,” we looked no further than our little river town of Marietta, PA and we worked to secure a lease with the Marietta Community House for the large brick building on the property. Over the years we made building improvements, and slowly began transforming the space into the Susquehanna Stage Company. Ten years and more than 45 productions later, we stand tall in our place of quality theatrical experiences in the county.

As we launch our second decade of community theatre in the newly acquired Marietta Center for the Arts, I want to humbly thank the volunteers, performers, families and supporters for your belief and faith in the Susquehanna Stage Company and all we try to do! Our plans for the future together will require hard work, real money, and theatrical inspiration--creating new and fresh plays and musicals in both our Eater Theater and the Gallery Stage. Extraordinary theatrical experiences will be paired with newly-focused educational opportunities for kids, teens, and adults.

Now, we are asking you to invest in your theatre, your community, and your business. By sustaining the arts, business partners demonstrate a leadership commitment to enhancing our community and contributing to its economic strength. Through their investment, businesses ensure Susquehanna Stage's ability to present high-quality productions and provide innovative arts-infused programs that engage and inspire thousands of artists, volunteers, and students each year.

I would like to invite YOU to become a business partner or patron as we forge ahead in our next ten years. Please help us to grow our youth programming, our community outreach efforts, our critically acclaimed plays and musicals, and our ongoing goal of flourishing as a gathering place for artists and performers. With our recent purchase of the downtown Marietta Theatre, our future here in Marietta and our influence on the arts scene in Lancaster County remains strong and optimistic. We humbly thank you for your consideration to support the Marietta Center for the Arts and our desire to impact the community and ignite a new level of excellence within the arts.

Our 2019 Season is classic, bold, and groundbreaking in every way! I hope you stay involved as we continue to evolve, nurture our humanity, and both create and support local arts.
